

WEISERMAZARS LLP EXPANDS ESTATE PLANNING AND TAX CAPABILITIES WITH ADDITION OF PARTNER GREGORY BLACK

New York, NY (August 20, 2015) – WeiserMazars LLP, a leading accounting, tax and advisory services firm, today announced that as of August 10, Gregory K. Black has joined as a Partner in the Tax Practice. Based in the New York office, he will substantially enhance the firm’s services to high net worth clients, structuring sophisticated wealth transfer plans and providing income, estate and gift tax return compliance services.

Lisa Osofsky, Private Client Services Practice Leader commented, “We are pleased to welcome Gregory to the team. His specialty in estate and gift tax will add to our existing strength in this area, giving our clients even greater depth of resources.”

Gregory is an experienced CPA and estate planning attorney with 15 years in the field. Previously, he was a Director in the Private Wealth Services Group of Grant Thornton and a Staff Attorney in the Stroock & Stroock & Lavan Private Client Group.

“Gregory’s experience will be of significant benefit to our clients, particularly in light of a potentially fast changing environment in the current climate of political uncertainty around individual taxation,” stated Victor Wahba, WeiserMazars CEO.

Gregory is a Certified Public Accountant in the State of New York and admitted to practice before the New York bar.

“Having worked closely with high net worth individuals and their families for more than a decade, I’ve seen the importance of having the right resources in place to successfully navigate turbulent periods of regulatory change,” commented Gregory. “I joined WeiserMazars because of the emphasis they place on working hand in hand with clients to ensure that they are receiving the best service possible – a commitment that mirrors my own. I look forward to serving both the firm’s existing clients and new ones in the future.”
