WEISERMAZARS LLP EXPANDS NOT-FOR-PROFIT PRACTICE WITH ADDITION OF PARTNER ETHAN KAHN

New York, NY (December 30, 2014) – WeiserMazars LLP, a leading accounting, tax and advisory services firm, is pleased to announce that Ethan Kahn has joined as a Partner in the Not-for-Profit Practice. Based in the New York office, he will substantially strengthen the firm’s services to the not-for-profit sector, particularly in the area of consulting and audit services.

Previously, Ethan ran his own successful practice serving a range of not-for-profit organizations. He has more than 16 years of experience delivering audit, accounting and consulting services to the sector, and is particularly adept at delivering clear and sound advice to senior management and Boards of Directors. Ethan has a sterling track record of helping clients overcome their most difficult strategic challenges in achieving their organizational goals.

“With increasing regulatory attention on not-for-profit organizations, their need for effective professional assistance is similarly growing,” stated Victor Wahba, Partner-in-Charge of WeiserMazars’ New York office. “Ethan’s substantial background delivering services to the sector, particularly his expertise in the area of consulting not-for-profits and performing audits and compliance, will be of great value to our current clients as well as to organizations new to our firm, moving forward.”

Ethan is a Certified Public Accountant in the State of New York.

“As a consultant, I have worked with a wide range of clients on matters that are critical to their organizations,” stated Ethan. “I joined WeiserMazars because of the emphasis they place on delivering value-added advice to clients and their commitment to excellence. I am enthusiastic about this move and am privileged to join a superb team. Today’s volatile environment requires competent and up-to-date information in order for not-for-profit organizations to successfully navigate a complex web of challenges.”
