WEISERMAZARS LLP NAMES BRUCE RICHMAN NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS VALUATION ADVISORY SERVICES PRACTICE

New York, NY – February 3, 2016 – Leading audit, accounting, tax and advisory firm WeiserMazars LLP announced the expansion of the Business Valuation Advisory Services Practice, to be led by new Partner Bruce Richman, who will be based out of the firm’s Chicago office. The expanded practice will provide cross-industry expertise to all of the firm’s clients, assisting them with decision-critical insight.

WeiserMazars Chairman and CEO Victor Wahba noted, “We are enormously pleased to have Bruce join us to lead this important practice group. In today’s global markets, effective valuation services are extremely important to our existing clients and the business community at large. We are proactive in building deep professional resources in this area as part of Project Century, our ongoing growth plan.”

The Business Valuation Advisory Services Practice will initially be based out of our centers of excellence located in New York and Chicago. The objective of which is to enhance the firm’s reputation in this area and extend these resources nationally over the course of the next few years in positioning WeiserMazars as a pre-eminent name in valuation services.

“Being able to handle complex valuation issues has a lot of synergy with WeiserMazars service offerings,” noted Bruce Richman. “Audit, Transaction Services, Estate and Gift Tax, Real Estate and, every other area of the firm. I believe that moving this segment forward will touch every Practice group– from providing audit assistance to financial reporting, litigation services and the tax practice. I’m looking forward to building a strong practice with talented professionals in an environment noted for exceptional client service.”

For over 30 years, Bruce has been actively involved in business valuations, mergers and acquisitions and other financial and tax consulting matters. He currently handles various corporate valuation projects and forensic/litigation assignments for U.S. clients – both nationally and internationally. He works with both private equity sponsors and individual corporate owners.
