Offit Kurman Client Integrity Consulting Solutions Completes Successful Merger with WeiserMazars

11/2/16

Mike Mercurio and Brent Salmons

Michael N. Mercurio and Brent T. Salmons, two attorneys with Offit Kurman's Business Law and Transactions Group, represented Integrity Consulting Solutions LLC during its recent sale to WeiserMazars LLP. The transaction was announced on Monday, October 24th.

Headquartered in Frederick, Maryland, Integrity Consulting is a management and technology consulting firm that offers services such as strategy development, risk management, disaster recovery, and implementation of IT infrastructures. Its clients include members of the life sciences, higher education, manufacturing, and financial services industries, as well as federal, state, and local government institutions. WeiserMazars, Integrity's acquirer, is a leading accounting firm that provides a comprehensive array of advisory services to hundreds of organizations in the US and around the world.

Equipped with WeiserMazars' support and the resources of a globally active firm, Integrity Consulting will be able to broaden its service offerings and achieve a higher rate of growth. The company will continue operating in its present location, under its same name, as a subsidiary of WeiserMazars.

"We are pleased to join WeiserMazars and to entrust the next stage in the growth of the business to a firm with national and global capabilities," said Patrick Wheeler, Managing Principal and CEO of Integrity Consulting Solutions. "We are confident that this is the right course for our clients and employees, and together we will provide the highest level of client service for which WeiserMazars and Integrity Consulting are known for."

"This deal is the definition of a mutually beneficial arrangement," said Mr. Mercurio. "We are pleased to share that both parties walked away happy with the terms of the transaction. I anticipate that Integrity and WeiserMazars will find nothing but success together in the future."

Mr. Mercurio is a member of Offit Kurman's board of directors, and chairs the firm's Business Law and Transactions Practice Group, and has served as general counsel to corporate clients at every stage of their businesses' life cycles, from formation to maturation and exit planning. He regularly represents and advises clients during mergers and acquisitions as well as transitions in ownership to third parties, management, or family members. Earlier in 2016, Corporate LiveWire recognized Mr. Mercurio for his achievements in business ownership planning with an International M&A Award.

Mr. Salmons represents public and private companies and investors in mergers and acquisitions, business formation and governance, financing, debt restructurings, and other corporate and financial matters. His experience has involved representation of companies in diverse sectors such as real estate, energy, and media and telecommunications.
